"Every politician student of bintery, or other person pretending to a him whedge of our public affairs, should possess the works of Jeffessot."

"This work is an individual donation to the people of America, and to the whole world also, as it contains the aerums of Republicanism that developed themselves so gloriously in this and, and are sinking into the heaven of the oppressed in every action under the beavens. It is the duty of every American citizen to familiarize himself with the teachings of this inspired Apostle of Freedom. All of us profess to belong to the before promise school; yet how few are acquained with his lessons of wisdom: We have now an opportunity of acquiring them.
